Overview of Travel and Objectives

Minister Eyre travelled to Ottawa, ON to testify before the Senate Committee on Energy, the Environment and Natural Resources regarding Bill C-69. This provided Saskatchewan an opportunity to share our concerns with the Senate on the impacts Bill C-69 will have, and call for the Senate to scrap Bill C-69.

Travel Activity:

During the travel, Minister Eyre testified before the Senate Committee on Energy, the Environment and Natural Resources. At the hearing, Senators asked questions which allowed our government the opportunity to state our case to stop Bill C-69.
