Overview of Travel and Objectives

The Premier and Minister Harpauer met with the CEOs of Scotiabank, RBC and CIBC. It was an opportunity for the Premier and Minister to share, with senior bank management, the government's strategies regarding trade development, economic and job growth, fiscal management, climate action and Saskatchewan's sustainable agriculture, mining, steel, and oil and gas industries. It was also an opportunity for the CEOs to provide insights on the Canadian, U.S. and world economies, and advise on ways to maintain, expand and diversify trading relationships

Topics discussed:

- International and Interprovincial Trade
 - Growing Saskatchewan exports
 - Diversification of trade to new markets
 - Current trade frictions
 - Canola (China)
 - Pulses (U.S.)
 - Steel (U.S.)
 - Uranium (U.S.)
- Job growth and innovation
 - Technology and plant-based protein innovation
- Pipeline access and expansion
- Climate action
 - Highlighting Saskatchewan's sustainable approach to agriculture, mining, steel and oil and gas industries
- Reducing regulation, tax and interprovincial trade restrictions.
