Provincial Capital Commission Board

Chair: Drew Wilby

Drew Wilby has almost 20 years of experience with the Government of Saskatchewan, starting as the Advisor to the Premier and Cabinet in 2007. He has held executive positions within the Ministries of Corrections, Policing and Public Safety, Justice and Attorney General, Labour Relations and Workplace Safety, and Immigration and Career Training.

He has developed and implemented numerous major initiatives during his career with the Government of Saskatchewan. For his work and dedication to public service, Drew received the Queen Elizabeth II Platinum Jubilee Medal.

Drew was born and raised in Saskatchewan and has continued to make helping people in this province the center of his work. He resides in Regina with his wife Brooke and their three boys Drayden, Rhett and Blake. He has coached his three boys in all their sports and continues to coach Blake in hockey.

In June 2026, Drew was appointed as Deputy Minister of Government Relations and Deputy Minister of First Nations, Métis and Northern Affairs.
