

Lieutenant Governor's Post-Secondary Teaching Award

Nomination Form

This award recognizes educators in Saskatchewan's publicly funded post-secondary institutions who have displayed excellence in teaching and learning through a commitment to high-quality student learning experiences and a demonstrated record of innovation, leadership, and commitment to student learning.

Read the nomination instructions in the Award Guide carefully to ensure all required supporting documents are submitted with the nomination package by June 30. A concise, well-written nomination package is encouraged. Evaluation of the nomination will be based on the quality and impact of the candidate's teaching attributes (i.e., teaching and learning; equity, diversity and inclusion; curriculum development, etc.), as outlined in the Award Guide.
