[subsection 18(2)]

SASKATCHEWAN LEAGUE OF EDUCATIONAL ADMINISTRATORS, DIRECTORS AND SUPERINTENDENTS — REGULATORY BYLAWS

Attached are the amended regulatory bylaws of the Saskatchewan League of Educational Administrators, Directors and Superintendents.

The amendments are to bylaw 19 and 24. As a result of the addition of new bylaw 24, the bylaws have been renumbered from 25 to 48.

Bylaws 1, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, and 24 share dual purposes and are considered both administrative and regulatory.

CERTIFIED TRUE COPY:

Ben Grebinski,
Executive Director,
League of Educational Administrators,
Directors and Superintendents of Saskatchewan.
Date: April 6, 2023.

APPROVED BY:

Dustin Duncan,
Minister of Education.
Date: May 6, 2023.

“The League

1 In these bylaws:

- (a) “act” means The League of Educational Administrators, Directors and Superintendents Act, 1991;
- (b) “member” means a person who is registered as a member of the League;
- (c) “university” means the University of Saskatchewan or the University of Regina.

8 A person shall be eligible for membership in the League if he or she possesses the qualifications as follows:

8.1 holds or meets the requirements to hold a Professional ‘A’ Teacher’s Certificate issued pursuant to The Teacher Certification and Classification Regulations, 2002 under The Education Act, 1995;

8.2 has completed the requirements at a recognized university for:

- (a) a Master of Education degree, or;
- (b) a Master of Business Administration degree or a Master of Public Administration degree, or;
- (c) a Master’s degree in a field related to the duties of an educational administrator, as approved by the executive.

8.3 Submits evidence to the League of a minimum of two years teaching experience at the elementary or secondary level acceptable to the executive;

8.4 Demonstrates good character satisfactory to the executive;

8.5 Has been designated by the Educational Relations Board pursuant to section 266 of The Education Act, 1995 as not being a teacher;

8.6 Is not employed under section 200 of The Education Act, 1995 by the same board of education for which the out of scope designation is sought.

9 New members, as a condition of remaining full members in the League, shall within twelve months of joining, or such greater time as may be approved by the executive, complete the League's Orientation Module I.

10 The requirements of the university are to be used as a guide in assessing programs of education, or professional training, or graduate study from other educational institutions.

11 Notwithstanding bylaw 8 above, any person who meets the requirements of subsections 28(4) and (5) of The League of Educational Administrators, Directors and Superintendents Act, 1991, shall possess the qualifications for membership in the League.

12 Any person accepting employment as an educational administrator in the province of Saskatchewan may obtain temporary membership in the League pending full formal compliance with the membership requirements, provided the executive is satisfied that those requirements are forthcoming within 12 months of the starting date of employment, or with an extension at the discretion of the executive.

13 The League shall admit as associate members:

13.1 all applicants who are of good character and possess the qualifications set out in clauses 28(2)(a to f) of The League of Educational Administrators, Directors and Superintendents Act, 1991;

13.2 any individual who has qualifications which, in the opinion of the Executive, are complementary to the field of educational administration.

19 There shall be standing committees as follows:

- (a) Discipline;
- (b) Professional Relations;
- (c) Educational Leadership;
- (d) Resolutions;
- (e) Adjudication.

20 The Discipline Committee shall be constituted annually in accordance with the provisions of The League of Educational Administrators, Directors and Superintendents Act, 1991, and shall:

- (a) exercise those duties given to it by The League of Educational Administrators, Directors and Superintendents Act, 1991;
- (b) perform any other duties assigned to it by the executive.

21.1 The Professional Relations Committee shall be constituted annually by the executive, who may regulate its size.

21.2 The Professional Relations Committee shall:

- (a) exercise those duties given to it by The League of Educational Administrators, Directors and Superintendents Act, 1991;
- (b) perform any other duties assigned to it by the executive.

22.1 The Educational Leadership Committee shall be constituted annually by the executive, and shall consist of:

- (a) the president-elect of the League;
- (b) such other members as the executive deems appropriate.

22.2 The Educational Leadership Committee shall:

- (a) coordinate the plan for implementation, review, and revision of the accreditation modules, as necessary;
- (b) develop, organize, and hold the League's Summer Short Course on professional development.

23 The Resolutions Committee shall be constituted annually by the executive, and shall consist of:

- (a) the president-elect of the League;
- (b) such other members as the executive deems appropriate.

24

24.1 The Adjudication Committee shall be constituted annually by the executive, and shall consist of:

- (a) a member of the executive;
- (b) such other members as the executive deems appropriate.

24.2 The Adjudication Committee shall be responsible for:

- (a) approving professional development opportunities that are submitted by LEADS members for individual accreditation credit;
- (b) implementing and monitoring identified professional development initiatives.

Procedures

40 The policies of LEADS and the direction for action from the members to the executive shall be determined by resolutions at general meetings.

41 With the exception of changes in bylaws, motions shall require only a simple majority of those members present and voting.

42 Proceedings at meetings shall be governed by Robert's Rules of Order.

43 Bylaws shall be made in the manner set out in section 17 of The League of Educational Administrators, Directors and Superintendents Act, 1991.

44 The Annual General Meeting shall be held in the spring of each year at a time and place to be determined by the executive.

45 General meetings may be called at the discretion of the executive. Notice of such meetings shall be mailed, or emailed, to the membership at large at least ten days prior to the date of the meeting. The president shall call a special meeting of the general membership following a written request signed by at least twenty active members. Such meetings shall be called within four weeks of the receipt of such a request.

46 The president shall call a special meeting of the general membership following a written request signed by at least twenty active members. Such meetings shall be called within four weeks of the receipt of such a request.

47 The executive shall employ an executive director, as per subsection 14(1) of The League of Educational Administrators, Directors and Superintendents Act, 1991, with duties deemed advisable assigned by the executive. The executive may appoint a secretary.

48 The executive may contract and/or hire specialized professional services as required.

Professional Code of ConductMembers of the League:

- ensure to be good citizens and to hold themselves to high ethical standards;
- constantly uphold the honour and dignity of their profession in all actions and relations with pupils, colleagues, school board members, and the public;
- accept the responsibility to keep abreast of current developments in education and to contribute to the growing body of specialized knowledge, concepts, and skills that characterize the professional aspects of school administration;
- ensure to provide the best possible educational experiences and opportunities to all persons in their school divisions, placing the needs of the student above all other considerations;
- applying for positions or entering into contracts seek to preserve and enhance the prestige and status of their profession;
- implement, in good faith, all provincial regulations and policies duly adopted by the Board;
- recognize that schools are the public's business and seek to keep the community fully and honestly informed about its schools, while maintaining confidences entrusted to them in the course of executing the affairs of the schools;
- shall not permit consideration of private gain or personal interest to affect the discharge of their professional responsibilities”.

CERTIFIED TRUE COPY:

Dr. Karen Shaw, Registrar,
College of Physicians and Surgeons.
Date: March 27, 2023.

APPROVED BY:

Honourable Paul Merriman,
Minister of Health.
Date: June 13, 2023.

Regulatory Bylaw 2.1 is amended by replacing “telemedicine” with “virtual care” throughout the bylaw.

Regulatory Bylaw 3.1(d) is amended by replacing “telemedicine” with “virtual care” throughout the bylaw.

Certified a true copy of two bylaw amendments passed by the Council of the College of Physicians and Surgeons on March 24, 2023.

Regulatory Bylaw 8.1(a)(i) is repealed and replaced with the following:

“(i) ‘standard of practice of the profession’ means the usually and generally accepted standards of practice expected in the branches of medicine in which the physician is practising.

A physician does not fail to maintain the standard of practice of the profession if there exists a responsible and competent body of professional opinion that supports the physician’s conduct or judgment”.

Certified a true copy of a bylaw amendment passed by the Council of the College of Physicians and Surgeons on March 24, 2023

The Regulatory Bylaws of the College of Physicians and Surgeons are hereby amended by repealing Bylaw 9.1 and replacing with the following:

“9.1 Conflict of Interest

(a) The physician-patient relationship is a fiduciary relationship. Patients rely on their physicians and must be confident that their needs are considered first. Physicians must make professional decisions based upon the best interests of their patients and ensure that their own personal interests do not conflict or appear to conflict with the interests of patients. Physicians must resolve any real, potential or perceived conflict of interest in the best interest of their patients.

(b) Physicians must make full, frank and timely disclosure of any real, potential or perceived conflict of interest to the patient. The obligation of disclosure applies regardless of whether the physician has obtained consent from the patient to remain in the conflict of interest.

(c) In this section ‘benefit’ means any benefit, gift, advantage or emolument of any kind whatsoever, whether direct or indirect, and includes:

(i) the receipt of any benefit from the services of any person or reimbursement of the cost thereof;

(ii) the benefit or receipt of the payment or reduction of any amount of any debt or financial obligation;

(iii) the receipt of any consultation fee or other fee for services rendered, except pursuant to a written contract for each such service where:

1. a copy of the contract is available and produced to the College on demand;
2. each contracted service is within the normal scope of the physician’s specialty; and
3. each service is supported by records adequate to satisfy the College that it was in fact performed.

(iv) the acceptance of any loan except pursuant to a written evidence of indebtedness,

1. executed at the time of transfer of funds;
2. witnessed at the time of actual execution by an individual whose name is legibly recorded on the document;

3. available and produced to the College on demand; and,
 4. that provides for a fixed term of loan and fixes a set interest rate, both of which are reasonable having a view to prevailing market rates at the time of the loan.
- (v) the acceptance of a loan that is interest free or related in any way to any referral made by the physician;
- (vi) the acceptance of credit unless the credit is unrelated in any way to any referral of patients to the creditor and the credit is extended pursuant to an agreement in writing,
1. executed at the time of the transaction;
 2. witnessed at the time of actual execution by an individual whose name is legibly recorded on the agreement;
 3. available and produced to the College on demand; and
 4. which provides for a fixed term of credit and fixes a set interest rate, both of which are reasonable having a view to prevailing market rates at the time of the transaction.
- (d) In this section ‘medical goods or services’ includes medical goods, appliances, materials, services and equipment, and drugs and laboratory services.
- (e) In this section ‘member of the physician’s family’ means any person connected with the physician by blood relationship, marriage or adoption, and:
- (i) persons are connected by blood relationship if one is the child or other descendent of the other or one is the brother or sister of the other;
 - (ii) persons are connected by marriage if one is married to the other or to a person who is connected by blood relationship to the other; and
 - (iii) persons are connected by adoption if one has been adopted, either legally or in fact, as the child of the other or as the child or a person who is connected by blood relationship (otherwise than as a brother or sister) to the other.
- (f) In this section ‘supplier’ means a person who:
- (i) sells or otherwise supplies medical goods or services; or
 - (ii) is registered or licensed under any Act regulating a health profession.
- (g) In this section ‘inducement’ means anything that persuades or influences someone to do something. It does not include usual and normal social interactions between physicians or between physicians and other healthcare practitioners.
- (h) In this section ‘conflict of interest’ includes a situation whereby a physician, or a member of the physician’s family, or a corporation, wholly, substantially or actually owned or controlled by the physician or a member of the physician’s family:
- (i) receives any benefit, directly or indirectly from:
 1. a supplier to whom the physician refers his patients or their specimens; or
 2. a supplier who sells or otherwise supplies any medical goods or services to the patients of the physician;
 - (ii) rents premises to:
 1. a supplier to whom the physician refers his patients or their specimens; or
 2. a supplier who sells or otherwise supplies any medical goods or services to the patients of the physician;

except where:

3. the rent is normal for the area in which the premises are located; and
4. the amount of the rent is not related to the volume of business carried out in the premises by the tenant;

(iii) rents premises from:

1. a supplier to whom the physician refers his patients or their specimens; or
2. a supplier who sells or otherwise supplies any medical goods or services to the patients of the physician;

except where:

3. the rent is normal for the area in which the premises are located; and
4. the amount of the rent is not related to the referral of patients to the landlord;

(iv) sells or otherwise supplies any drug, medical appliance, medical product or biological preparation to a patient at a profit, except in accordance with the policy Sale of Products by Physicians.

“Practice arrangements

(i) A physician, or a corporation controlled by the physician, may enter into a practice arrangement with another healthcare practitioner in which the physician or the corporation may receive a benefit if a patient receives a medical good or service from the healthcare practitioner, provided the physician has:

- (i) ensured that the patient is aware of alternatives to receiving services from that healthcare practitioner; and
- (ii) disclosed the existence of that possible benefit to the patient.

“Referral arrangements

(j) A physician must not accept or offer commissions, rebates, fees, gifts or other inducements to or from another healthcare practitioner related to patient referrals.

(k) A physician must not enter into an arrangement which requires, or offers an inducement for, the physician to refer the patient to a specific provider of goods or services.

(l) It is a conflict of interest for a physician to order diagnostic tests to be performed by a diagnostic facility in which the physician or a member of the physician’s family has any proprietary interest unless the physician has:

- (i) ensured that the patient is aware of alternatives to the diagnostic facility; and
- (ii) disclosed the existence of that propriety interest to the patient.

(m) It is a conflict of interest for a physician to refer a patient to a treatment facility in which the physician or a member of the physician’s family has any proprietary interest unless the physician has:

- (i) ensured that the patient is aware of alternatives to the treatment facility; and
- (ii) disclosed the existence of that propriety interest to the patient.

“Unprofessional Conduct

(n) It is unbecoming, improper, unprofessional or discreditable conduct for a physician to have a conflict of interest in relation to the physician’s professional practice”.

Certified a true copy of bylaw amendments passed by the Council of the College of Physicians and Surgeons on March 24, 2023.

Regulatory Bylaws of the College of Physicians and Surgeons are hereby amended by renumbering Regulatory Bylaw 11.2 as Regulatory Bylaw 11.3.

The Regulatory Bylaws of the College of Physicians and Surgeons are hereby amended by adding the following as Regulatory Bylaw 11.2:

“11.2 Hearing Administrator

- (a) The Council or the Executive Committee may appoint one or more persons as a hearing administrator.
- (b) At any time after a person has been charged with unbecoming, improper, unprofessional or discreditable conduct, the Registrar may request a hearing administrator to establish a prehearing conference.
- (c) At any time after a person has been charged with unbecoming, improper, unprofessional or discreditable conduct, the person charged may request a hearing administrator to establish a prehearing conference.
- (d) Subject to paragraph (e), upon receiving a request to establish a prehearing conference, the hearing administrator will contact the parties and set a date for a prehearing conference.
- (e) Unless legal counsel for the College and legal counsel for the person charged otherwise agree, the hearing administrator will only establish a date for a prehearing conference after College counsel has provided disclosure.
- (f) At least 20 days prior to the date set for the prehearing conference, the lawyer for the College is required to provide a prehearing conference memorandum to the hearing administrator and the other party.
- (g) At least 10 days prior to the date set for the prehearing conference, the person charged or, if the person is represented by legal counsel, the person's lawyer, is required to provide a prehearing conference memorandum to the hearing administrator and the other party.
- (h) The Council can, from time to time, establish what is required to be included in a prehearing conference memorandum.
- (i) College legal counsel and if the person charged is represented by a lawyer, the person's legal counsel, are required to participate in a prehearing conference with the hearing administrator on a date and time set by the hearing administrator to attempt to resolve the charge or charges or, if an agreement cannot be reached, to act in good faith to attempt to make the hearing before the discipline hearing committee more efficient. Unless College legal counsel and the person's lawyer otherwise agree, or the hearing administrator otherwise directs, the person charged is also required to participate in the prehearing conference. These obligations apply to any adjournment of a prehearing conference and to any meetings directed by the hearing administrator as part of the prehearing conference.
- (j) College legal counsel, counsel for the person charged and the person charged shall not have any ex parte communications with the hearing administrator that could have the effect of influencing the conduct or outcome of the prehearing conference.
- (k) Unless otherwise directed by the hearing administrator, the prehearing conference will be conducted in person, or by video, telephone conference or an equivalent mechanism provided that all parties participating are able to communicate with each other. The hearing director may direct an in-person prehearing conference.
- (l) At the prehearing conference, the hearing administrator shall discuss the following with the parties:
 - (i) whether any or all of the issues can be settled;
 - (ii) whether the issues can be simplified;
 - (iii) whether there are any agreed facts;

- (iv) whether either party contemplates a pre-hearing application;
 - (v) the advisability of attempting other forms of resolution of the matter; and
 - (vi) anything else that the hearing administrator concludes is relevant for the parties to discuss.
- (m) The hearing administrator may adjourn a prehearing conference and may hold one or more meetings with the parties as part of the prehearing conference.
- (n) If a proposed resolution requires the Council or the Executive Committee to make a decision to implement that proposed resolution, College legal counsel will act in good faith to support that decision being made.
- (o) Memos and discussions during the prehearing conference of the strengths and weaknesses of the parties' evidence and arguments and of possible resolutions are without prejudice and may not be disclosed by anyone unless all parties agree, or disclosure is required by law".

Bylaw 15.1 of the Regulatory Bylaws of the College of Physicians and Surgeons is hereby amended by repealing paragraph (h) and replacing with the following:

"(h) the fees and expenses of the lawyer or lawyers retained by the College in connection with the investigation and/or hearing, including in connection with a prehearing conference";

Bylaw 15.1 of the Regulatory Bylaws of the College of Physicians and Surgeons is hereby amended by repealing paragraph (i) and replacing with the following:

"(i) the sum of $300.00 per hour for each hour spent by a lawyer employed by the College of Physicians and Surgeons in connection with the investigation and/or hearing, including in connection with a prehearing conference";

Bylaw 15.1 of the Regulatory Bylaws of the College of Physicians and Surgeons is hereby amended by renumbering paragraphs (j) and (k) as (k) and (l) respectively.

Bylaw 15.1 of the Regulatory Bylaws of the College of Physicians and Surgeons is hereby amended by adding the following:

"(j) the fees and expenses of a hearing administrator in connection with a prehearing conference";
