Overview of Travel and Objectives

FPT ministers responsible for culture and heritage held their annual meeting in Toronto to discuss common priorities for the 2023–24 year. Minister Ross represented Saskatchewan and the provincial sector interests at this meeting.

The meeting was hosted by the Honourable Pablo Rodriguez, Minister of Canadian Heritage, the Honourable Neil Lumsden, Ontario Minister of Tourism, Culture and Sport and the Honourable Michael Ford, Ontario Minister of Citizenship and Multiculturalism.

It was a valuable opportunity to come together to share successes and explore innovative ways to support, strengthen and promote the country's culture and heritage sectors. This meeting reinforced the collective commitment to work together to honour Canada's history and create a brighter future for Canadian's.

Travel Activity:

While in Toronto, Minister Ross:

- Attended meetings discussing strengthening the creative economy, culture and heritage resources in Canada, and engagement and promotion in these sectors.
- Discussed the Online Streaming Act, Bill C-11 and Online News Act, Bill C-18.
- Participated in presentations of high-level data analysis and trends for culture and heritage.
- Met with national Indigenous groups to discuss topics of importance to these organizations.
