What type of program are you pursuing? ☐ PhD Thesis ☐ Masters Thesis ☐ Masters Non-Thesis (Project)

The Saskatchewan Lieutenant Governor Indigenous Scholarship is awarded to those pursuing graduate or post-graduate studies in any field of study. Preference will be given to research that supports and aligns with the Saskatchewan Growth Plan and addresses complex challenges that impact the citizens of Saskatchewan. Preference will be given to applicants who are in the early stage of their degree (within 12 months for Masters; within 24 months for a PhD) and have not received a single national award (valued at $27,000 for Masters; $40,000 for a PhD) aligned with Tri-Council Standards.

What is your thesis/project topic or area of major research that you intend to pursue for your graduate study?

Please describe how your research is related to the Saskatchewan Growth Plan and addresses complex challenges that impact the citizens of Saskatchewan:

Briefly describe your planned academic activities with proposed completion dates (e.g, your intended classes, thesis/project work, etc.):

*Attach a one-page outline of your thesis or project topic or area of major research you intend to pursue for graduate studies.

References

List the name, address, and position of two persons who can critically assess your intellectual and scholarly strengths as well as your personal qualifications who are providing the letters of reference to be included in this application package. One letter must be from a current, or former, university professor. Referees must email the letter, along with the Letter of Reference Form, directly to the university office address noted below.
