MUNICIPAL PUBLISHING

We are pleased to offer a Gazette and Publications Centre service to you with respect to municipal bylaws and other information online. We have had a great working relationship with municipalities for many years for assessment notices and meeting your legislation needs. With the introduction of Chapter 25 - The Municipalities Modernization and Red Tape Reduction Act, Office of the King's Printer can help you prepare for and meet the legislative requirement of publishing bylaws in a downloadable format on a website available to the public in advance of the September 1, 2028 deadline.

By preparing for the new municipal publishing rules, this is an opportunity for all municipalities to satisfy their current publishing requirements as well as start the process to publish on a public website, Publications Centre. The Gazette, which is and has been a permanent and official publication since 1905, qualifies as a weekly public newspaper and is the only publication for notices whose jurisdiction is the entire Province of Saskatchewan. Publications Centre is a permanent solution for municipal publishing on the Internet and will always have the highest standards of security, accessibility and availability from the official publisher of Government of Saskatchewan Acts and regulations and Rules of Court.

Office of the King's Printer can further provide print copies of your bylaws and other information to constituents using our established ecommerce should anyone want a print copy.
