Title1 These regulations may be cited as The Food Safety Amendment Regulations, 2026.RRS c P-37.1 Reg 12 amended*2 The Food Safety Regulations are amended in the manner set forth in these regulations.Section 2 amended*3 Subsection 2(1) is amended:(a) by adding the following clause after clause (a.3):“(a.4) ‘farmer’s market’ means a market:(i) where rental or allotted space is used to sell food and other items that are made, baked or grown locally; and(ii) where at least 50% of the spaces are designated for the sale of locally grown produce for at least 6 months of the year”;(b) in clause (d.1) by striking out “in his or her home or residence” and substituting “at home”;(c) in clause (d.11) by striking out “The Domestic Game Farm Animal Regulations” and substituting “Part 3 of The Animal Production Regulations”;(d) by adding the following clause after clause (j):“(j.1) ‘public market’:(i) means a place where independent merchants sell food and other items from permanent or temporary stalls or booths; but(ii) does not include a farmer’s market, a food distributor as defined in section 22 or a special event”;(e) by repealing clause (k) and substituting the following:“(k) ‘sell’ means to sell, offer for sale, display for sale or offer for use for human consumption”; and*(f) by adding the following clause after clause (k.3):*“(k.4) ‘special event’ means an event open to, and where food is made available to, the general public that operates for not more than 15 days within a calendar year, and includes a fair, festival, exhibition, promotional event or carnival”.

New section 2.1

4 Section 2.1 is repealed and the following substituted:

“Exemption for personal use

2.1 These regulations do not apply where a person slaughters the person’s own animal on the person’s own property solely for consumption by that person or by that person’s immediate family”.

New section 12.1

5 The following section is added after section 12:

“Standards

12.1 Every licensee must comply with the Food Facility Standards, as amended from time to time, published by the ministry”.

Section 20 amended

6 Subsection 20(3) is amended by striking out “him or her” and substituting “customers”.

Section 22 amended

7(1) Subsection 22(1) is amended by striking out the portion preceding clause (a) and substituting the following:

“Subject to subsection (1.1), unless exempted in writing by the local authority from the requirements of this subsection, every operator of a food facility or operator of a food distributor must ensure that food that is intended to be sold to the public, and the ingredients used in the preparation or processing of that food, are:”.

(2) Subsection 22(1.1) is amended by adding “or operator of a food distributor” after “The operator of a food facility”.

(3) The following subsections are added after subsection 22(1.1):

“(1.2) To sell eggs, a producer must:

- (a) sell only eggs that:
 - (i) are whole, clean, have no visible cracks and are not leaking; and
 - (ii) are produced on the producer’s premises;
- (b) package the eggs in clean cartons that are:
 - (i) labelled with the producer’s name and contact information and the date on which the eggs were packaged; and
 - (ii) in the case of ungraded chicken eggs, marked as ‘ungraded eggs’ in letters of a size and prominence that are easily readable; and
- (c) until the eggs are sold, keep the eggs at a temperature of 4°C or less, including during transportation, display and storage.

“(1.3) A food distributor may sell whole eggs directly to consumers at a farmer’s market or public market or on the premises on which the eggs were produced if the eggs and egg packaging meet the requirements of subsection (1.2).

“(1.4) Notwithstanding subsections (1.2) and (1.3), no operator of a food facility shall use ungraded chicken eggs in any product produced or served in or from the food facility”.

(4) Subsections 22(2) and (3) are repealed and the following substituted:

“(2) Subject to subsection (3), every operator of a food facility or operator of a food distributor must:

- (a) maintain an up-to-date record of the names and addresses of all sources of food that is intended to be sold to the public and the ingredients used in the preparation or processing of that food; and
- (b) make the record available to the local authority on request.

“(3) The operator of a food facility or operator of a food distributor must maintain the record mentioned in subsection (2) for a period of 2 years after the food to which the record applies is sold to the public”.

(5) The following subsection is added after subsection 22(5):

“(6) In this section, ‘food distributor’ means an operation or facility that sells, distributes, stores or transports food”.

New section 23

8 Section 23 is repealed and the following substituted:

“Potentially hazardous food – temperature control

23(1) In this section:

‘ready-to-eat food’ means potentially hazardous food that is:

- (a) normally consumed without washing, cooking or other preparation; or
- (b) processed into a form in which it is consumed without further processing;

but does not include raw food of animal origin nor food of animal origin intended to be consumed raw;

‘temperature control’ means a food temperature controlled in accordance with subsection (2) or (3), as the case may be.

(2) Subject to subsection (4), the operator of a food facility must ensure that:

- (a) potentially hazardous food that is stored or displayed in the operator’s food facility before it is sold for human consumption is kept at a temperature of:
 - (i) 4°C or less; or
 - (ii) 60°C or greater; and
- (b) an accurate thermometer is available in the operator’s food facility to monitor the temperature of potentially hazardous food.

(3) Unless exempted in writing by the local authority, a person who transports potentially hazardous food intended for sale must ensure that the food is kept at a temperature of:

- (a) 4°C or less; or
- (b) 60°C or greater.

(4) For ready-to-eat food only, the local authority, on receipt of an application by the operator of a public eating establishment, may, subject to subsection (7), authorize alternative temperatures for the purposes of subsections (2) and (3), with associated conditions, if applicable, if the local authority is satisfied that:

- (a) the operator has a history of regulatory compliance; and
- (b) those temperatures, together with those conditions, pose no risk that the food will become unfit for human consumption.

(5) An authorization granted pursuant to subsection (4) must be in writing.

(6) The operator of a public eating establishment that is granted an authorization pursuant to subsection (4) must:

- (a) maintain a written food safety plan for the public eating establishment for ready-to-eat food that is authorized to be removed from temperature control; and
- (b) with respect to ready-to-eat food that is authorized to be removed from temperature control at the public eating establishment, ensure that the food:
 - (i) is kept at a temperature controlled in accordance with subsections (2) and (3) immediately before being removed from temperature control;
 - (ii) is clearly labelled with the date and time at which it was removed from temperature control;
 - (iii) is kept at a room temperature of less than 24°C after being removed from temperature control; and
 - (iv) is discarded if not served by the public eating establishment within 2 hours after being removed from temperature control.

(7) For ready-to-eat food, if the operator of a public eating establishment intends to operate using alternative temperatures for the purposes of subsections (2) and (3) in methods that deviate from the requirements mentioned in subsection (6), the local authority, on receipt of an application by the operator for authorization, must obtain the minister's approval to grant the authorization.

(8) An authorization granted pursuant to subsection (4) is automatically cancelled if the operator of the public eating establishment to whom the authorization has been granted:

- (a) contravenes a provision respecting temperature or time control, food handling or food storage imposed by:
 - (i) the Act;
 - (ii) these regulations;
 - (iii) the operator's licence; or
 - (iv) the operator's authorization; and
- (b) fails to rectify the contravention within 14 days after being informed of the contravention by the local authority or the minister.

(9) If the operator of a public eating establishment has been refused an authorization pursuant to subsection (4) or has had that authorization cancelled pursuant to subsection (8), the operator must wait at least 30 days after that refusal or cancellation, as the case may be, before applying for a new authorization".

Section 24.1 amended

9 Section 24.1 is amended in the portion preceding clause (a) by striking out “offer for sale.”.

Section 24.11 amended

10 Subsection 24.11(1) is amended by striking out the portion preceding clause (a) and substituting:

“No person who operates a milk plant shall pasteurize, for the purpose of selling, milk that:”.

New section 26

11 Section 26 is repealed and the following substituted:

“Food sanitation training

26(1) In this section:

‘not-for-profit food facility’ means a food facility that is operated for a charitable purpose or by a non-profit organization;

‘temporary event food facility’ means a food facility that operates exclusively at special events.

(2) Unless exempted in writing by the local authority, the operator of a food facility, other than a not-for-profit food facility or a temporary event food facility, must ensure that all persons who handle, process, prepare, package, sell or store food have successfully completed a food safety course that is approved by the minister.

(3) The operator of a not-for-profit food facility or a temporary event food facility must ensure that:

(a) at least one person who has successfully completed a food safety course that is approved by the minister is working in the food facility at all times; and

(b) if only one person working in the food facility has successfully completed a food safety course that is approved by the minister, that person must be acting in a supervisory role in the food facility or be working alone.

(4) A local authority may require the operator of a food facility or other person who handles, processes, prepares, packages, sells or stores food to attend and successfully complete a food safety course that is approved by the minister, if, in the opinion of the local authority, the food facility is operated in a manner that is injurious to or may endanger the public health”.

New section 28.1

12 Section 28.1 is repealed and the following substituted:

“Restriction – low risk food

28.1 A home food processor may only produce, or otherwise process, and sell low risk food”.

Section 28.2 amended

13 Section 28.2 is amended by striking out “his or her premises” and substituting “the premises of the home food processor”.

Section 28.3 amended14 Subsection 28.3(1) is repealed and the following substituted:

“(1) A home food processor, in accordance with the requirements set out in subsection (2), must label the low risk food that the home food processor intends to sell”.

Section 28.5 amended15 Section 28.5 is amended:

(a) by renumbering it as subsection 28.5(1); and

(b) by adding the following subsection after subsection (1):

“(2) A home food processor may sell low risk food directly to a public eating establishment”.

New section 28.5116 The following section is added after section 28.5:*“Sales from public eating establishments

28.51 To sell from a public eating establishment food that has been produced or otherwise processed by a home food processor, the operator of the public eating establishment must comply with the following conditions:

(a) the operator must, in relation to the food, hold an exemption in writing from the local authority with respect to the requirements of subsection 22(1);

(b) prior to sale, the public eating establishment must clearly identify for customers, in writing and in any other manner required by the local authority, that the food is made in a home kitchen that is not inspected by a government agency”.

Section 28.6 amended17 Clause 28.6(f) is repealed and the following substituted:

“(f) milk plants;

“(g) processing facilities;

“(h) slaughter plants”.

New Part IV18 Part IV is repealed and the following substituted:*“PART IV*Public Access to Food Facility Information*“Definitions for Part*29 In this Part:

‘de-identified information’ means personal information or personal health information from which any information that may reasonably be expected to identify a third party has been removed;

‘information’ means, with respect to a food facility:

- (a) whether or not:
 - (i) a licence has been issued pursuant to the Act or these regulations for the food facility and, if a licence has been issued, the terms and conditions of the licence; or
 - (ii) a licence issued for the food facility has been amended, suspended or cancelled;
- (b) information collected by a local authority during the investigation of a complaint, illness or injury concerning the food facility related to food;
- (c) the contents of any inspection report made pursuant to the Act or these regulations concerning the food facility;
- (d) the contents of any order issued pursuant to the Act or these regulations concerning the food facility;
- (e) information related to an order issued or enforcement action taken by the local authority pursuant to the Act or these regulations concerning the food facility;
- (f) any charges laid or convictions obtained with respect to the operation of the food facility pursuant to the Act or these regulations; and
- (g) with respect to a slaughter plant, any information relating to the matters set out in clauses (a) to (f) authorized by the ‘Sanitation Regulations’, being Saskatchewan Regulations 420/64, as those regulations existed on the day before the coming into force of The Food Safety (Slaughter Plants) Amendment Regulations, 2018;

‘personal health information’ means personal health information as defined in The Health Information Protection Act;

‘personal information’ means personal information within the meaning of section 24 of The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act or section 23 of The Local Authority Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act;

‘third party’ means, in relation to a food facility, a person who is not an owner or operator of the food facility nor employed in, or associated with, the operation of the food facility.

“Public access to information

30(1) Subject to section 31, a local authority may, in accordance with this section, provide public access to information with respect to a food facility.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), a person may apply to obtain, and a local authority must provide public access to, information concerning a food facility but only with respect to the 3-year period before the date of the application.

(3) A local authority may provide all or part of any information concerning a food facility that covers matters before the 3-year period mentioned in subsection (2) if the local authority:

- (a) believes public access to that information, or that part of the information, is in the public interest; or
- (b) receives written permission from the operator of the food facility to provide public access to the information or that part of the information.

(4) An applicant for public access shall pay a fee of $30 to the local authority to obtain the information for each food facility to which the application relates.

(5) Subject to section 31, the minister may provide public access to information with respect to a food facility.

(6) Nothing in this section prohibits a local authority or the minister from making all or any part of the information concerning a food facility available to the public through a website or other electronic means.

“Information re third parties

31 When a local authority or the minister discloses information pursuant to this Part and that information includes personal information or personal health information with respect to a third party:

- (a) the local authority or the minister shall not disclose the personal information or personal health information if de-identified information will accomplish the purpose for which the information is being disclosed; and
- (b) if disclosure of personal information or personal health information is necessary to accomplish the purpose for which the information is being disclosed, the local authority or the minister shall disclose only the minimum amount of personal information or personal health information that is necessary to accomplish that purpose”.

Coming into force

19(1) Subject to subsection (2), these regulations come into force on the day on which they are filed with the Registrar of Regulations.

(2) Section 11 comes into force on February 1, 2028.

b) par adjonction de « or » à la fin du sous-alinéa (iii) de la version anglaise;

c) par adjonction du sous-alinéa suivant à la suite du sous-alinéa (iii) :

« (iv) soit par courriel, si l'autorité désignée a fourni une adresse de courriel ou si une adresse de courriel associée à l'autorité désignée est accessible à tous ».

Modification de l'article 9

7 Les paragraphes suivants sont ajoutés à la suite du paragraphe 9(3) :

« (4) L'autorité désignée peut actualiser le montant indiqué dans une déclaration déposée en vertu du présent article en déposant à la cour, au moins 2 ans après la date de la dernière déclaration déposée en vertu du présent article, une déclaration révisée.

« (5) Pour les besoins de la déclaration révisée, l'autorité désignée fait la conversion du montant des aliments en monnaie canadienne au moyen du taux de change applicable à la date de la déclaration révisée.

« (6) Lorsqu'une déclaration révisée est déposée à la cour conformément au paragraphe (4), le montant indiqué en monnaie canadienne dans la déclaration révisée est réputé le montant de l'ordonnance étrangère et correspond à la somme due dès la première date de versement qui suit la date du dépôt ».

Nouvel article 10.1

8 L'article suivant est ajouté à la suite de l'article 10 :

« Autorité compétente

10.1 Pour l'application de l'article 36.06 de la Loi, l'autorité compétente en Saskatchewan est, selon le cas :
