MUNICIPAL PUBLISHING

We are pleased to offer a Gazette and Publications Centre service to you with respect to municipal bylaws and other information online. We have had a great working relationship with municipalities for many years for assessment notices and meeting your legislation needs. With the introduction of Bill 43 - The Municipalities Modernization and Red Tape Reduction Act, Office of the King's Printer can help you prepare for and meet the legislative requirement of publishing bylaws in a downloadable format on a website available to the public in advance of the September 1, 2028 deadline.

By preparing for the new municipal publishing rules, this is an opportunity for all municipalities to satisfy their current publishing requirements as well as start the process to publish on a public website, Publications Centre. The Gazette, which is and has been a permanent and official publication since 1905, qualifies as a weekly public newspaper and is the only publication for notices whose jurisdiction is the entire Province of Saskatchewan. Publications Centre is a permanent solution for municipal publishing on the Internet and will always have the highest standards of security, accessibility and availability from the official publisher of Government of Saskatchewan Acts and regulations and Rules of Court.

Office of the King's Printer can further provide print copies of your bylaws and other information to constituents using our established ecommerce should anyone want a print copy.

PUBLICATIONS MUNICIPALES

Nous avons le plaisir de vous proposer les services de la Gazette et du Centre des publications en ce qui a trait aux arrêtés municipaux et aux autres renseignements publiés en ligne. Depuis de nombreuses années, nous entretenons d'excellentes relations de travail avec les municipalités en matière d'avis d'évaluation en vue de les aider à se conformer aux lois. Avec l'entrée en vigueur du chapitre 25 de la loi sur la modernisation des municipalités et la réduction des formalités administratives, intitulée The Municipalities Modernization and Red Tape Reduction Act, le Bureau de l'Imprimeur du Roi peut vous aider à vous préparer et à vous conformer à l'obligation légale de publier les arrêtés municipaux dans un format téléchargeable sur un site Web accessible au public avant la date limite du 1er septembre 2028.

En se préparant à l'entrée en vigueur des nouvelles règles en matière de publication municipale, toutes les municipalités ont ainsi l'occasion de se conformer à leurs obligations actuelles en la matière et d'entamer les démarches nécessaires pour publier leurs documents sur un site Web public, le Centre des publications. La Gazette, qui est et a toujours été une publication officielle et permanente depuis 1905, est considérée comme un journal public hebdomadaire et constitue la seule publication dédiée aux avis dont le champ d'application couvre l'ensemble de la province de la Saskatchewan. Le Centre des publications constitue une solution permanente pour la publication municipale sur Internet et respectera toujours les normes les plus strictes en matière de sécurité, d'accessibilité et de disponibilité, en tant qu'éditeur officiel des lois, règlements et règles de procédure du gouvernement de la Saskatchewan.

Le Bureau de l'Imprimeur du Roi peut également fournir des exemplaires papier de vos arrêtés municipaux et d'autres renseignements à vos électeurs via notre plate-forme de commerce électronique, si certains d'entre eux souhaitent en obtenir un exemplaire papier.
